In 2018, Food Equality Initiative (FEI) continued to live our mission and core values to serve low income patients diagnosed with food allergies and celiac disease. This was accomplished by strengthening our programs to offer improved services to the people we serve and their family members and educating our community on the impact of food insecurity on people with food allergies. FEI provided over 15,000 healthy "free-from" foods to clients enrolled in our nutrition assistance program. With increased access to the right foods, clients were able to improve their quality of life. Our partnerships with Kansas University Medical Center and Children's Mercy Hospital strengthen our evidence-based approach as the first nutrition intervention for patients with food allergies and celiac disease.
